Lucy's life

Lucy, first born daughter of Ashford Ngai and Catherine Igoji grew up in Kirumi Igwanjau area, a good place it is. She grew in a simple family and simple life undertaking all the duties that young girls enjoy doing. She could enjoy doing family chores shared together among five siblings. Nancy Kagwiria, Kenneth Mawira, Lloyd Kinyua, Irene Kaari and step brother Humphrey Micheni.

She was beloved niece to Proffesor Mbaabu, Tr Irene, Riungu and Kagundu among others. She was sister in-law to Ashford Njagi, Frida Kanyiri and Fridah Kagwiria. She was a cousin to many.

Lucy began her early studies at Kiirumi Primary School then joined Igwanjau Secondary School. She proceeded for her further education at Kenyatta University where she graduate with a diploma in office administration.

Lucy's parents are Christians and taught her the way of Christ. She was baptized in 1975 at PCEA Kirumi Church. She was deeply rooted in her faith from an early age and diligently attend church and catechism classes and was confirmed as full member of the church. She participated in church activities. Her commitement to her faith was evident in her regular attendance of church services and district services. She was a Woman's Guild Follower. Her spiritual journey and contribution to her faith community have left a lasting impact. She joyfully participated in church projects.

In 2005 Lucy Karimi was blessed with a baby girl, Blanche Agatha Makena. Makena grew together with her cousins Martin Mutugi, Velma Neema, Brian Munene, Tifanny Kendi, Joyfavour Wendo, Blessing Kanana, Rita Kinya, Abigael Zawadi, Precious Nkatha, Anita Nyawira, Jessy Baraka. They were happy growing together with Makena and playing with their auntie who was ever happy and bought for them gifts and Christmas outfits. Though Auntie was tough they loved her because she taught them good morals of honesty, sharing and kindness. The rule was you need to have good manners. Auntie Lucy was the best to them.

Lucy was a prominent figure at Marima. She passionately served as an office clerk at KTDA Weru Factory where her absence profoundly felt by all who knew her in the company and the community around. She also served in other KTDA factories like Kinoro Tea Factory where she left her positive legacy. Apart from white collar job she was good in business.

Lucy enjoyed a healthy life till late October 2024, when she started feeling unwell. She was admitted at St. Ann's Hospital and later transferred to Coptic Hospital then to Kenyatta National Hospital where she rested while undergoing treatment.

Lucy was fun loving person and devoted lady in all her duties. Lucy had an infectious smile that made her beloved by many. She was ready to lend hand or offer advice to those who approach her. She had a unique ability to connect with people. Lucy leaves behind a profound legacy touch not only her family and friends but also a wider community and colleagues.

May her soul rest in God's Loving Arms, till we meet again.
